

Dear Host Family,

My name is Sarah, and I am thrilled at the possibility of spending for to six weeks with you in the United States.

I'm 16 years old, and I come from a warm and loving family in the region of Alsace, France. I reside in a small city called Kirchheim. In this village we love the Alsatian culture like eating a lot of flammenkuche.

My family includes my parents: Chantal (52) and Pascal (55), whom I am very close to, and my young sister called Emilie (13). At home, we are also greeted daily by the enthusiastic barks and wagging tail of our beloved dog, Randy, an Australian Shepherd who loves long walks and playing in our garden.

My friends and I often spend our time exploring local trails, participating in sports, and enjoying the simple pleasures of discussions about everything from music to our dreams for the future. These moments of connection and laughter are what I cherish the most.

In my free time, I love reading and enjoy expressing myself through photography. These hobbies allow me to capture and appreciate the beauty in everyday moments and the world around me. I also love to do horse-riding with friends, there I realize that these moments are precious.

At school, I am particularly interested in languages, economy, and sciences. I like economy because that could help me in the future by learning the principles of the business world. I find physics science and chemistry interesting too. I also like the languages, and above all English. I believe that living with a host family could provide an unparalleled opportunity to enhance my understanding and proficiency in English while allowing me to experience the richness of American culture and values firsthand.

Looking ahead, I aspire to study economy, to work in international companies. This experience in the States would be a first step toward realizing my professional ambitions. I hope to return with a broader perspective, new skills, and friends and memories that I will cherish for a lifetime.

I can't express enough how much I look forward to this adventure and the chance to be a part of your family, even if just for a short while. I am eager to learn from you and share my own culture and stories. Thank you for considering opening your home and hearts to me.

Warmest regards,

Sarah ☺
