

Hi! My name is Martina, I was born on November 12th 2006, I'm 17 years old and I live in a small town near Florence.

My family is composed by me, my mom Aneta, my dad Giampaolo and my younger brother Giacomo.

Since November began to be a part of the family also Mirtillo, my hamster. I'm an animal lover and I've always dreamed, since I was little, to adopt a puppy, even if for some reasons we couldn't take it.

I'm a very shy person, but when I get comfortable with someone I'm more "free".

I love listening to music, I don't have a favorite type of music but my favorite singer is Calcutta and I really like Coldplay, I've been dreaming of going to one of their concerts for years, and last summer me and my best friend tried to take the tickets for the Italian dates, but they were already sold out.

I love art, from this point of view I'm very lucky since I live in one of the most historical cities in the world.

I love visiting museums in fact if I have the opportunity I try to visit as much as possible. My room is full of painting by Monet or Van Gogh and my best friend for my birthday got me the tickets for the Van Gogh exhibition in Milan (I cried).

Another thing that I really like to do is travel. Since I was little I traveled a lot for example I've been in London, Madrid, Granada, Dublin, Nice, Paris, some cities in Italy and in Poland, since my mom is Polish so half of my family lives there and we go visit them at least one time a year.

Some of these cities I was able to visit them thanks to the school I go in. I go in a linguistic high school, that means that we study more languages than the other schools. In fact I can say that I speak 5 languages which are Italian, English, Spanish, French and Polish.

I have two best friends and a boy best friend, Giulia, Camilla and Niccolò, they are amazing, I love to spend time with them and I'm very grateful that I have them in my life. I know Giulia since I was 2 years old, so she's literally like a sister to me.

Unfortunately Giulia and Niccolò doesn't go in the same school as me, so during the week we can't often see each other because of the homework but every weekend we're together.

In class I have a group of friends with which I'm very well and of which Camilla is also part. And luckily I have them because thanks to them I like school a little bit more ahaha.

I always dreamed of doing the exchange year in the USA, I've been telling it to my parents for years and I couldn't wait to be 17 to leave and go on the other side of the world. At the end, I couldn't leave for my
