What is your religious affiliation, if any: CATHOLIC (NO PRACTICING)

Would you accept to go to religious service with your host family?  Yes

In theory no, but I'm okay to try (it will not be mandatory but it usually is an important part of the American family life)

Dear host family

My name is Eva. I am 14 years old and I am in 9th grade. I live in the south of France, in Toulouse, also called "La Ville Rose  Toulouse is a very charming city, nice for walking around and discovering beautiful monuments like the Capitole, which is also where my favorite McDonald's is

I am a cheerful, rather energetic, and sociable girl. I like meeting new people and discovering new environments, I have travelled a lot: saint Barth, Monaco, Dubai, Bali, ile Maurice, saint-tropez, Santodomingo, Paris  but I am also very funny-especially enjoy laughing with my mom.

In my family, there are four of us: my mom, my dad (who is bald ) , and my older brother Luca, who is 16. I am very close to him. We often go to the movies together or have "girls' days" With my mom when we go shopping, eat out, and share stories for hours

I have always lived with dogs. We had two Golden Retrievers, both very calm. The first one passed away when I was 6, and the second one passed away two years ago. They were part of our family and losing them was really sad for me

I have always kept some of my childhood friends, especially my best friend since I was 3, but unfortunately, we grew apart because of lies and betrayal. It was the biggest friendship break in my life, and it made me realize who my true friends are-my family included. Besides that, I have a small group of friends. There are four of us, and we like going out in town, shopping, hanging out, and eating together-especially at McDonald's  .

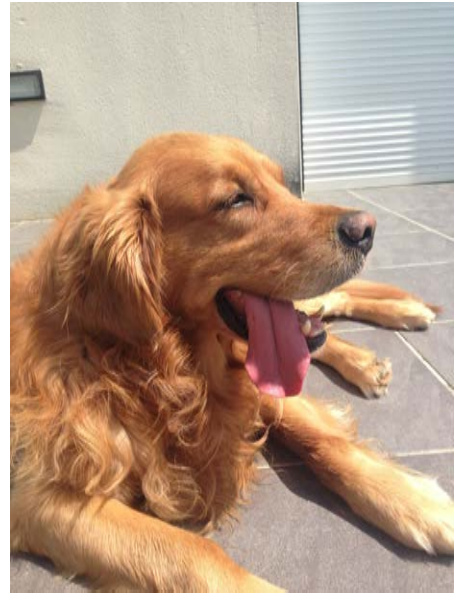

I go to a private school that includes primary, middle, and high school, and I've been there since I was 3. Next year, I will change schools to find a better fit. I study sciences, literature (French), languages (English and Spanish), and other subjects like sports, music, and art. My favorite subject is math. I used to have difficulties, but last year I had an amazing teacher-who is also my neighbour helped me a lot. Now math is easier, and it's my highest grade  .

My favorite hobby is karting, especially in the summer when the weather is nice. It helps me relax from school and problems. My grandparents introduced me to karting, and my brother and I always go during our vacations with them. I am also passionate about cars. I have always been around cars because my parents own luxury cars, and my brother has also taught me a lot. During our vacations in Monaco, we spend days spotting cars and taking photos, which lets me meet people who share the same passion and make new friends. I even did my 9th-grade internship at Aston Martin Monaco because I am sure I want to work in this field in the future, even if I don't know the exact job yet. This internship helped me discover some possibilities  .

I am very motivated and excited to go abroad.

Despite my challenges, I want to improve and discover the world. I have always dreamed of going to the United States, and this would be an amazing experience. I am sociable, funny, and easygoing, so I hope I won't be a problem at all .
